

CAPITAL REGION CHAMBER

Unified Military Affairs Council Family Readiness Grant

PURPOSE

Unified Military Affairs Council (UMAC), a program of the Capital Region Chamber, offers grants to provide funding for Military Family Readiness support and programming that will improve the well-being and resilience of military members and their families. Applications should emphasize personal growth, positive development and improve the functioning of an individual and/or family.

ELIGIBILITY

- Military installations/organizations that provide Family Readiness programs with a Command endorsement (E8 or higher).
- Military facility must be active within UMAC.
- Must provide Family Readiness programming that would benefit military families.
Examples: Youth camps, child care, educational trips, training, large family events.
Funding may be used for:
 - Professional services
(example: facilitators or trainers)
 - Professional entertainment
 - Medical expenses
 - Non-alcoholic refreshments
 - Transportation
 - Equipment /materials
- If funding is for purchasing equipment, please note how equipment will be cared for and how long it is expected to benefit families.
Example: Purchase of baseball equipment for a summer camp will be stored in Bldg 3 storage closet under the supervision of the Family Readiness Coordinator and will provide equipment for the base youth summer camps for three years.
- UMAC must be acknowledged on all printed flyers, invitations, press releases, etc.
- A final report must be provided to the Capital Region Chamber Foundation within 30 days of the completion of the event. The final report must include a description of the event, activity, or program with a minimum of three photographs, along with receipts for the amount of the grant.
