

MIKE SPICER
CDPHP

Mike leads the product innovation team of portfolio managers, researchers, and analysts at CDPHP in Albany, NY. Mike's team is always seeking out new trends and disruptions in healthcare to enhance CDPHP's product portfolio, running the gamut from digital health technologies to high deductible plans paired with HSAs.

Mike is most interested in studying and utilizing consumer behavior trends in healthcare, including the choices people make, why they make those choices, and the influences required to help them make choices that are more appropriate.

Originally from Syracuse, New York, Mike relocated for his post-secondary education, including a B.S. from Union College focused in Neuroscience and Quantitative Economics, as well as a master's of Business Administration (M.B.A.) focused in Healthcare Management from Clarkson University. Mike now resides with his family and dachshunds in Latham while continuing to work on his golf game.
