

MATTHEW DILLON

Martin, Harding & Mazzotti, LLP

Matt Dillon is an attorney at Martin, Harding & Mazzotti, LLP. His practice focuses on personal injury litigation, particularly in the fields of medical malpractice, construction, products liability, motor vehicle collisions, and premises liability. Matt has litigated cases in state and federal courts throughout New York State. He has published and lectured on legal issues including e-discovery, social media, the Americans with Disability Act, food safety, and trial tactics.

Matt is committed to his professional and local communities and devotes his time to providing meaningful and positive impact. He is a member of the Board of Advisors for the Capital District YMCA – Bethlehem Branch and is the Vice-President for the Greater Capital District Italian American Bar Association. Matt has volunteered for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, including fundraising for, and running in, the Disney Half Marathon as part of the Team in Training program. Matt also maintains strong connections to his alma maters, Stonehill College and Albany Law School.