

Wendi Enright is the Chief Executive Officer of Tech Forward, Inc. She has an MBA with a Concentration in Management, from York College of Pennsylvania. A resident of Guilderland, Wendi is an active member and Ambassador for the Capital Region Chamber of Commerce, a volunteer for multiple local agencies, and the Business and Technology Department Chair at Mildred Elley College. She has a long history of dynamic personnel recruitment and a successful track record as a small business owner, corporate executive, director of human resources, college educator, and business reporter.