

AMANDA SNEDEKER

Berkshire Bank

Amanda started her banking career 11 years ago as a bank teller at her local financial institution. Starting from the entry level position, she has worked her way up the ladder to her current position of AVP, Dual Branch Manager with Berkshire Bank at the Central Avenue and Loudonville locations. Amanda has worked in multiple committees within Berkshire Bank to help strengthen many different areas including operations, sales and leadership training. She has also participated with fundraising and volunteerism for several different organizations as part of Berkshire Bank's community volunteer initiative. Some of those organizations include The Hudson Mohawk Humane Society, HATAS and The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

Outside of the bank, Amanda has worked alongside her friends and family to raise money for various nonprofits including The March of Dimes, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and The ASPCA. She spends a large portion of her free time helping her husband with the office work for his Plumbing and HVAC business. When it comes time to relax, Amanda enjoys boating, snowmobiling and running.
