

ANGELA TADDEO

Golub Corporation/Price Chopper

Angela is the Claims Operations Manager for the Insurance Support Services Department at Golub Corporation/Price Chopper. Angela began her career with Golub Corporation in 2008, holding various Insurance-related positions and handling claims for the six State jurisdictions that Price Chopper operates within. In her current position, Angela oversees all logistical and daily functions for the Workers Compensation and General Liability Department. This position affords her the opportunity to serve as the main liaison with all outside vendors and oversee multiple ongoing modernization projects.

Angela graduated from the State University of Geneseo with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. She is currently finishing her Associate in Claims designations for both specialty areas of Workers Compensation and General Liability. Angela currently resides in Downtown Troy and enjoys reading, running, and travelling in her spare time.
