

CHRISTINA NEUBERGER

Schenectady ARC

Christina Neuberger is a Residential Director for Schenectady ARC, one of the Capital Region's largest providers of residential, vocational, day and clinical services for individuals with intellectual and other developmental disabilities. Christina started her career with Schenectady ARC in 2010 as an Activity Coordinator Intern and quickly advanced to her current role as Residential Director. Currently, Christina provides oversight and management to group homes and supervised apartments throughout Schenectady County. She is responsible for day to day operations, fiscal management, and regulatory compliance of each program.

Christina is a graduate of the University at Albany earning her bachelor's degree in Sociology and minor in Psychology. She also holds an AAS in Human Services from Schenectady County Community College. While in college, Christina studied abroad in London for a semester, where she was able to explore many parts of Europe and was able to gain a vast amount of knowledge of various cultures.

Christina resides in Scotia, NY with her fiancé Travis where she has lived a majority of her life. She is a member of the Scotia Glenville Elks Lodge where she is involved in volunteer activities throughout the capital district. Aside from the Elks you can typically find Christina outside enjoying nature by the lake or by a campfire with her dog Princess.
