

KEVIN QUARANTO

BlueShield of Northeastern New York

Kevin is responsible for analyzing prospective clients' health, pharmacy, stop-loss, and ancillary service needs while developing a comprehensive benefit package. He previously worked as sales account executive and director of account management for Empire BlueCross BlueShield an Anthem Company.

He is a former professional baseball player for the Philadelphia Phillies, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Marketing & Management, concentration in Management from Siena College. Kevin is a member NYAHU – Northeastern New York Association of Health Underwriters. He volunteers with American Cancer Society – Making Strides Against Breast Cancer. He serves on the board of Capital Region Chamber's Young Professional Network (Campus Connect), BSNENY's BlueCrew and St. Pius X Catholic Church's Parish Council. Kevin resides in Slingerlands, New York with wife Kate and their 3 children - Grace (4), Luke (2), and Jeannie (1).