

MARK STROCK

Golub Corporation/Price Chopper

Mark has been with The Golub Corporation for 22 years. Since starting his career as an order picker, Mark has held a variety of leadership roles in the distribution center and is currently the Shift Supervisor of the Perishable Outbound operation. Mark is responsible for leading a team that supplies perishable products to all 135 Price Chopper stores. While ensuring compliance with OSHA and FDA regulations, Mark has been successful at implementing strategic improvements to distribution processes and procedures. Mark works diligently to provide a safe and productive work environment. Mark has earned an associate degree in Supply Chain Management from Schenectady County Community College.

Born and raised in the Capital Region, Mark currently lives in Cohoes with his wife, Jessica, and their two sons, Jeremiah and Justin. When Mark is not working, he enjoys spending most of his time with his family and coaching youth sports. Mark is passionate about teaching life lessons through the games of football and baseball. Mark has been an active volunteer in North Colonie youth baseball and football programs since 2012. He is currently a board member for the North Colonie Jr. Bison football program and is responsible for field maintenance.
