

SOPHIE MOSS

Albany Symphony

Sophie Moss is the Director of Development at the Albany Symphony. A Capital Region native, Sophie's passion for the arts began at age 6 when she first picked up the violin, and she has had the privilege of supporting our community's GRAMMY-winning orchestra for the past five years as a fundraiser and advocate. Sophie's past career experiences in sales, hospitality, and event management have contributed to her personal mission to create and facilitate inspiring experiences for others. Sophie is a proud two-time graduate of the SUNY system, receiving her bachelor's from the University at Buffalo and her master's from the University at Albany.
