

VICTORIA AUFIERO, ESQ.

Healthcare Association of New York State (HANYs)

Ms. Aufiero coordinates, formulates, and assists in the leadership of advocacy strategies and policies related to insurance, managed care, and behavioral health. She collaborates directly with HANYs' members and advocates on their behalf with regulators, lawmakers, and policy leaders. She provides denials management training, develops strategies for members in their issues with payers, and identifies solutions through best practices, confronting health plans, or developing legislation. In addition, she leads HANYs' behavioral health agenda, including a priority issue of complex case discharge delays, and leads the HANYs Behavioral Health Task Force, which helps shape HANYs' behavioral health policy agenda.

Ms. Aufiero is a board member of the Holy Cross Club of Eastern NY, and former board member of Our Brothers' Keeper Foundation. Prior to joining HANYs in 2014, she was a staff attorney at Boies Schiller & Flexner LLP. Previously, Ms. Aufiero was the Public Policy Director at NAMI-NYS.

Ms. Aufiero has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of the Holy Cross and a Master of Studies in Environmental Law and Juris Doctorate degree from Vermont Law School. Ms. Aufiero is a member of both the New York and Massachusetts Bars.
