

AMANDA GANSKY
Wildwood Programs

Amanda has been at Wildwood Programs for the last 12 years. She is currently the Sr. Training Specialist for the training department. Within this role she assists with developing and facilitating classes for staff to better help them support people with varying disabilities. Amanda is a FA/CPR and SCIP Instructor and sits on several committees.

Amanda has over 20 years of experience in the field of Human Services. She has worked for two additional agencies in a variety of roles. From directly supporting people who live in residential settings, to managing multiple residences, and everything in between. In her spare time, Amanda enjoys hiking, shopping and all things Harry Potter.

Amanda graduated from Watervliet High School and is currently attending College at SNHU to obtain a degree in Business Administration.
