

CAITLIN MCCARTHY

UHY Advisors NY, Inc.

Caitlin is the HR Manager for the national professional services firm, UHY Advisors. She is responsible for leading UHY's people resources; recruitment, retention and advancement initiatives for the Upstate New York regional offices. With a focus on engaging UHY's next generation in the world of public accounting, assurance, consulting and advisory services, Caitlin shares in UHY's passion for investing in one another so as to succeed together.

Prior to joining UHY, she served as an HR professional for over five years within another Capital Region based organization. During that time, she discovered her passion for fostering connections with her colleagues and other professionals within the region. In addition to this, she discovered her desire to connect individuals with opportunities in support of developing their professional and personal goals.

Caitlin holds an associate's degree in Veterinary Medicine, an associate's degree in Business Administration and Management, both from SUNY Delhi, as well as a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from SUNY Plattsburgh. Originally from Oneonta, NY, Caitlin is a transplant to the Capital Region of nine years. In her free time, she thoroughly enjoys everything the Capital Region has to offer including the numerous biking and running trails, hiking in the Adirondacks, or visiting one of the several lakes in the area.
