

LEIGH METZGER

M&T Bank

Leigh is responsible for managing client relationships in the Healthcare and Not-for-Profit industries here in the Capital Region.

She joined M&T in 2015 at their corporate office in Buffalo through the company's Credit Analyst Training Program after graduating from Villanova University's School of Business, with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 2017 she relocated home to Albany, where her credit focus was new commercial real estate business throughout the Bank's footprint. After six years in the Credit Department, she recently transitioned into business development within the Albany Region.

Leigh is active in the community volunteering often for organizations in the region including the Northeast Kidney Foundation, Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, as well as for clients and partners of the Bank. She was also on the event committee for Vanderheyden's 165th Anniversary New Year's Eve Gala in 2019. Leigh looks forward to continuing her involvement in the Capital Region as a volunteer and looks forward to serving on future Boards where her expertise can be of help.
