

JACQUELINE RICHARDS

Center for Disability Services

Jacqueline Richards is a Capital Region native. She grew up in Schenectady, NY and attended SUNY Empire State College where she received her BA in Community and Human Services. Jacqueline began her career at Center for Disability Services (CFDS) 26 years ago and is currently overseeing Community and Residential programs as a Director of Residential Services. Jacqueline has also worked with National Coalition

Building Institute (NCBI) for 18 years, most recently serving as an Affiliate Director.

Jacqueline has spent time volunteering with community organizations such as the Albany Damien Center, The Muslim Community Center, Down Syndrome Aim High Resource Center and The Langan School. In her free time Jacqueline enjoys spending time with her family and friends, kayaking, and gardening.