

JASON SCHMIDT

Crisafulli Bros. Plumbing, Heating, Cooling and Electrical Contractors, Inc.

Jason Schmidt is the Human Resources Manager at Crisafulli Bros. Plumbing, Heating, Cooling and Electrical Contractors, Inc. located in Albany, NY.

Having over a decade of work experience in payroll administration, Jason oversees all payroll operations while assisting the Executive Management Team with the company's overall strategic goals. His main responsibility is supporting the talented team members of Crisafulli Bros. from onboarding to retirement. Since Jason loves wearing many hats, he also leads the internal Wellness Committee that creates and implements healthy well-being initiatives that are then instituted for the entire Crisbro team.

Outside of work, Jason is a devoted husband to his wife Ashlee, a proud father of 3-year-old twins, and a grateful stepfather! Jason is originally from Rochester, NY and has been living in the Capital Region since 2002. In his free time, Jason is a volunteer youth hockey coach for the Troy Albany Hockey Association. He brings over 35 years of experience in the great game of hockey! Jason takes much pride in coaching the youth after many years of people volunteering their time to teach him; it is now his turn to pass on the great knowledge that he has been given over the years.