

Karen Laing is the Regional Manager, Trainer, and COPE facilitator for Justice for Orphans. JFO seeks to inspire, educate and equip communities to care for vulnerable children in crisis. Karen serves this endeavor by training on poverty and trauma as well as managing the technology platform CarePortal.org that links case workers caring for kids in crisis to community members that want to help.