

David Druzynski

A seasoned Chief People Officer with over 20 years of experience transforming workplaces into purpose-driven, people-powered organizations. He currently serves as Chief People Officer at Fleetworthy, the only complete technology suite for fleet readiness. From safety and compliance to toll management and weigh station bypass, Fleetworthy connects everything a fleet needs to stay ready for the road ahead.

David is recognized for building inclusive cultures, leading post-merger integrations, and aligning people strategies with business growth. A frequent speaker at national conferences, he shares practical insights on scaling culture, navigating organizational change, and fostering leadership that puts people first.